

Roger Gorrel is currently the Business Development Manager for Top Office Group; a locally owned and operated recruitment and registered training organisation located in Ipswich and Toowong.

Roger has held various positions in management, business development, sales and marketing including roles as the Regional Manager – South West Qld for the CCIQ (Chamber of Commerce & Industry Qld), Brand Manager - Audi Toowoomba, Media Sales Manager - Qld Times Group & the Toowoomba Chronicle and General Manager of the Gatton, Lockyer and Brisbane Valley Star.

With direct ownership and experience in family owned businesses across a number of media, retail and manufacturing businesses Roger provides a wide variety of connection, experience and links to developing business growth and profit.

With skills in management, communication, sales planning, business development, marketing, sales training and negotiation Roger provides real life expertise to help businesses grow.

Roger is known as an innovative, intuitive, result driven management professional, with the ability to steer business fundamentals that stimulate business revenue and client growth. Roger has a proven background and solid understanding of leadership and the processes around what drives successful sales principals and customer engagement.

Roger's passion is to facilitate business development, sustainability and growth for while connecting businesses to ideas and platforms that drive company improvement and connection to communities.