

Pushpa Bakshi: is a highly experienced Accountant, Business Director and Neuro Strategist. Being strong in Leadership Management skills, with advanced capabilities she is associated with projects in education, local businesses, community projects and Government. Having delivered at many institutions, Pushpa devours the know-how in compliance and relevant reporting to the Executive committees, council, parliament, management teams and directors as well as all stakeholders.

Her Key focus is on quality and delivering the highest distinction outcomes for all and is a proven business skills mentor for the QLD government.

In addition, Pushpa is a Senior Leader for Anthony Robbins International and delivers motivational training and seminars all around Australia including tailored events for the special needs, physical disabilities and mental health with the expertise to work effectively in variety of training modes.

Pushpa has also been writing for the media since 2008 on the Economic climate as well has health and Well being Positions Held in Community Projects: Board member for Ipswich Chamber of Commerce and Industry, President Business Network International, Vice President Gladstone Chamber of Commerce, Vice President Multi-Cultural Association Inc, Committee Zonta International, Treasurer Mid-day Rotary Club, Vice President African Association, Assistant Treasurer LNW, Fellow member of the Australian Institute of Professional Facilitators and Fellow member of several accounting and tax institutes.

Pushpa is currently setting up a project to empower and inspire Queensland Women and Youth to the potential of pursuing Leadership positions in their workplace and communities